

SKRIKE

Meaning: 'Skrike' refers to a sharp, piercing cry or shriek, often associated with birds or strong winds.

1. The sudden skrike of the bird startled everyone in the quiet park.
2. As the storm approached, the skrike of the wind grew louder and more ominous.
3. In the distance, a child let out a skrike of joy upon spotting the ice cream truck.
4. The eerie skrike echoed through the abandoned building, sending chills down their spines.
5. She couldn't help but skrike in excitement when she received the surprise gift.
6. He let out a skrike of surprise when he saw the unexpected visitor at his door.
7. The skrike of the owl echoed through the dark woods, creating an eerie atmosphere.
8. In the midst of the celebration, a skrike of laughter burst from the crowd, breaking the tension.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/skrike>