SKULK

Meaning: To skulk means to move stealthily or furtively, often with the intent to avoid detection.

1. He decided to skulk around the abandoned building, hoping to catch a glimpse of the rumored ghost.
2. The cat would often skulk in the shadows, waiting patiently for the perfect moment to pounce on its prey.
3. She felt a pang of guilt as she watched him skulk away after overhearing their conversation.
4. In the dark alley, the thief chose to skulk quietly, blending in with the shadows to avoid detection.
5. As the storm approached, the children skulked inside, reluctant to leave their game behind.
6. He tried to skulk behind the bushes to avoid being seen.
7. The cat would often skulk around the garden, hunting for unsuspecting birds.
8. Feeling guilty, she chose to skulk away from the party unnoticed.
9. The thieves skulked through the shadows, hoping to evade the security cameras.
10. He could sense that someone was skulking behind him in the dark alley.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/skulk