

SLAB

Meaning: A slab is a large, flat piece or block of material, typically made of concrete or ice, used in construction or formed by natural processes.

1. The builder carefully placed the heavy concrete slab on the foundation.
2. After the storm, a slab of ice formed on the surface of the pond.
3. She enjoyed her morning coffee while sitting on the sun-warmed stone slab in the garden.
4. The artist used a large slab of marble to create an intricate sculpture.
5. As the athlete lifted the weights, he felt the cool slab of metal beneath his hands.
6. The builders poured concrete to create a sturdy slab for the foundation of the new house.
7. He carefully placed the marble slab on the table to showcase its intricate veining.
8. After the earthquake, they inspected the pavement for any cracks in the concrete slab.
9. The artist used a thick slab of clay to sculpt a detailed figure for the exhibition.
10. They laid down a granite slab in the garden to create a beautiful seating area.
11. The workers poured concrete to create a sturdy slab for the new building foundation.
12. He placed a thick slab of marble on the countertop for a luxurious finish.
13. After the storm, a large slab of ice floated down the river.
14. The ancient ruins were constructed from massive stone slabs, each weighing several tons.
15. She carefully sliced the bread into even slabs before serving it at the dinner table.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slab>