

SLABBER

Meaning: To slabber means to drool or spill liquid messily, often in a state of excitement or indulgence.

1. The dog began to slabber excitedly as its owner approached with a treat.
2. During the hot summer days, the children would slabber ice cream all over their faces.
3. She tried to keep her composure, but she couldn't help but slabber over the delicious dessert.
4. After the long run, he would slabber water all over his shirt while trying to hydrate.
5. The toddler would slabber with joy whenever he played with his favorite toy.
6. The dog began to slabber all over his new toy as he played excitedly.
7. She tried not to slabber as she savored the delicious chocolate cake.
8. During the hot summer days, the children would slabber with joy while eating ice cream.
9. The toddler would slabber whenever he saw his favorite cartoon character on TV.
10. As the toddler ran toward the puppy, he couldn't help but slabber with excitement.
11. The dog began to slabber excitedly when it saw its owner returning home.
12. He couldn't help but slabber over the delicious-looking cake at the bakery window.
13. As the toddler giggled, he would slabber all over his favorite toy.
14. She watched in amusement as her puppy slabbered all over the new chew toy.
15. During the picnic, the kids would slabber with joy as they indulged in ice cream.
16. The dog began to slabber at the sight of its favorite treat.
17. During the hot summer day, the toddler would slabber over his ice cream cone.
18. As the athlete exerted himself, he couldn't help but slabber from the effort.
19. The baby would slabber and giggle every time she saw her reflection in the mirror.
20. He was so excited to see his friend that he started to slabber all over the greeting card.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slabber>