

SLAM

Meaning: Slam (verb): to close forcefully or to perform a powerful, forceful action, especially in sports.

1. She slammed the door in frustration after their argument.
2. The basketball player made a spectacular slam dunk that energized the crowd.
3. He gave the table a hard slam, making the dishes rattle.
4. The thunderstorm caused the windows to slam shut with a loud bang.
5. In the final moments of the match, she delivered a powerful slam that secured their victory.
6. She slammed the door behind her in frustration.
7. The basketball player made an impressive slam dunk during the game.
8. As the thunder rumbled, the rain began to slam against the windows.
9. He felt a surge of adrenaline as he prepared to slam his opponent in the wrestling match.
10. The critic's review was a harsh slam that left the artist feeling disheartened.
11. The door slammed shut in a fit of frustration.
12. With a loud slam, the basketball hit the backboard before plunging through the net.
13. She felt a wave of anger wash over her as she slammed the phone down on the table.
14. The car came to a sudden stop, causing the passengers to slam forward in their seats.
15. The critic's review was a slam against the film, leaving the director visibly shaken.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slam>