

SLANDER

Meaning: Slander is the act of making false spoken statements that damage someone's reputation.

1. The gossip spread quickly, but it was nothing more than slander against her character.
2. Falsely accusing someone of theft is not just mean; it's slander that can ruin their reputation.
3. He decided to take legal action after enduring months of slander from his former business partner.
4. Slander can have devastating effects, especially in a small community where everyone knows each other.
5. Despite the slanderous remarks made about him, he chose to rise above the negativity and focus on his work.
6. The accusation of slander against the journalist sparked a heated debate about press freedom.
7. She was devastated when she discovered that her former friend had spread slander about her online.
8. Slander can have serious legal consequences if someone can prove that false statements were made.
9. In the small town, rumors often escalated into slander, damaging reputations without any evidence.
10. He decided to sue for slander after realizing that the gossip had cost him his job opportunity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slander>