

SLAP

Meaning: SLAP (verb): To strike someone or something with an open hand, often producing a sharp sound.

1. She gave him a playful slap on the back for a joke well told.
2. The sound of the slap echoed through the quiet room, drawing everyone's attention.
3. In a moment of frustration, he couldn't help but slap his palm against the table.
4. She tried to suppress a laugh when he made a slapstick attempt at dancing.
5. The referee issued a penalty after the player delivered a slap to his opponent's face.
6. She felt a stinging sensation on her cheek after he gave her a playful slap.
7. The sound of the slap echoed through the quiet room, breaking the tension in the air.
8. In a moment of frustration, he delivered a light slap to his own forehead.
9. The coach instructed the players to slap their hands together as a sign of encouragement.
10. With a swift motion, she gave the water a slap, sending droplets flying into the air.
11. She gave him a playful slap on the back after he told a funny joke.
12. The sound of the slap echoed in the quiet room, catching everyone's attention.
13. Feeling frustrated, he couldn't resist the urge to slap the table in exasperation.
14. In the movie, the unexpected slap between the characters added a humorous twist.
15. The teacher warned the students that a slap on the wrist would be the consequence for misbehavior.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slap>