

SLATTER

Meaning: To slatter means to join or strike wooden pieces together, often resulting in a clattering or noisy impact.

1. The carpenter decided to slatter the boards together to create a sturdy frame for the shed.
2. During the storm, the wind caused the wooden slats to slatter against each other, creating a loud noise.
3. He watched as the artist began to slatter paint across the canvas in a flurry of vibrant colors.
4. The children were instructed to slatter mud on their pots to give them a rustic, textured finish.
5. After the heavy rain, the leaves would slatter against the pavement, creating a beautiful sound.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slatter>