SLAV

Meaning: SLAV: A member of a group of peoples in Eastern Europe and northern Asia who speak Slavic languages, often associated with the cultural and historical traditions of Slavic societies.

1. The historian specialized in the study of Slavic cultures and their rich traditions.
2. He carefully analyzed the ancient texts written in Old Slav, revealing insights into their society.
3. The Slavs played a significant role in the formation of medieval Eastern European states.
4. Her research focused on the linguistic evolution of the Slavic languages over the centuries.
5. The festival celebrated the vibrant music and dance of the Slavic heritage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slav