

SLAVERER

Meaning: A slaverer is a person who enslaves others or engages in the practice of capturing and selling individuals into servitude.

1. The slaverer used deceitful tactics to lure individuals into a life of servitude.
2. In history, the slaverer often faced backlash from abolitionists who fought for human rights.
3. The novel depicted a slaverer as a ruthless figure, exploiting the vulnerable for profit.
4. Through the eyes of the freed slaves, the true nature of the slaverer was unveiled.
5. The legacy of the slaverer still haunts many societies, reminding us of the past injustices.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slaverer>