

SLAVERING

Meaning: Slavering refers to the act of drooling or showing excessive eagerness or desire, often in a way that suggests greed or intense craving.

1. The dog sat at the table, slavering over the scraps of food that fell from our plates.
2. As the chef presented the decadent dessert, I found myself slavering in anticipation of the first bite.
3. The sight of the juicy steak on the grill had everyone in the backyard slavering with desire.
4. He watched the movie about the zombie apocalypse with a mix of horror and fascination, slavering at the thought of survival.
5. After running a marathon, she was slavering for a cold drink to quench her thirst.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slavering>