

SLAVISM

Meaning: Slavism is a cultural and political movement advocating for the unity and identity of Slavic nations.

1. Slavism has often been associated with the cultural and political movements advocating for the unity of Slavic nations.
2. The rise of Slavism in the 19th century played a significant role in shaping national identities across Eastern Europe.
3. Many scholars argue that Slavism can foster a sense of solidarity among diverse Slavic communities.
4. Critics of Slavism contend that it sometimes promotes exclusionary practices against non-Slavic groups.
5. The influence of Slavism can still be felt today in the cultural expressions and political discourse of various Slavic countries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slavism>