

SLEER

Meaning: SLEER (verb): To emit or display a vivid, radiant quality, particularly in colors or light.

1. The artist's latest painting seemed to sleer with vibrant colors that captivated every viewer.
2. As the sun set, a sleer of orange and purple spread across the horizon, creating a breathtaking scene.
3. The actor delivered his lines with a sleer of confidence that impressed the entire audience.
4. She wore a sleer of mystery about her, drawing people in without revealing too much.
5. In the eerie silence of the forest, a sleer of unease settled over us as we ventured deeper.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sleer>