

SLEEVE

Meaning: A sleeve is the part of a garment that covers the arm.

1. She rolled up her sleeve to reveal a colorful tattoo.
2. The shirt had a long sleeve design that was perfect for the chilly evening.
3. He found a hidden note tucked inside the sleeve of an old jacket.
4. She adjusted the sleeve of her dress to make it more comfortable.
5. The artist carefully painted intricate designs on the fabric of the sleeve.
6. He rolled up his sleeve to show the tattoo on his arm.
7. The dress had elegant lace sleeves that added a vintage touch.
8. She reached into her jacket sleeve to retrieve her phone.
9. The shirt's long sleeves made it perfect for the chilly evening.
10. He could feel the cool breeze against his bare skin where the sleeve had torn.
11. The dress had elegant lace sleeves that added a touch of sophistication.
12. He reached into his sleeve and pulled out a hidden note.
13. After the warm day, she wished she had worn a long-sleeved shirt.
14. The magician's trick involved making a rabbit disappear from his sleeve.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sleeve>