

SLEP

Meaning: 'Slep' is a colloquial verb meaning to sleep or rest, often implying a desire to avoid decision-making or to pass time in a state of unconsciousness.

1. She decided to slep on the decision before making a final choice.
2. As the night grew colder, he wished he could just slep through the rest of the winter.
3. After the long hike, all he wanted to do was slep for a solid eight hours.
4. The baby finally managed to slep peacefully after hours of fussing.
5. In times of stress, sometimes the best solution is to simply slep it off.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slep>