

SLEPT

Meaning: 'SLEPT' is the past tense of the verb 'sleep,' meaning to have been in a state of rest characterized by reduced consciousness and inactivity.

1. She peacefully slept through the thunderstorm outside.
2. After a long day at work, he slept like a rock.
3. The baby slept soundly in her crib, undisturbed by the noise.
4. They slept in the tent under a canopy of stars.
5. I realized I had slept too late and missed my morning meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slept>