

SLIGHT

Meaning: Slight (adjective): having little weight, importance, or intensity; minor or subtle.

1. The slight breeze rustled the leaves, creating a soothing melody.
2. She felt a slight sense of unease as she entered the dimly lit room.
3. After a slight pause, he continued his explanation with renewed confidence.
4. The artist used a slight variation in color to add depth to the painting.
5. Despite the slight difference in opinions, they managed to reach a consensus.
6. The slight breeze rustled the leaves in the trees.
7. She felt a slight twinge of regret after the argument.
8. There was a slight difference in color between the two paint samples.
9. His slight frame made him agile and quick on his feet.
10. The team achieved a slight improvement in their performance this season.
11. The slight breeze rustled the leaves, creating a soothing sound in the garden.
12. She felt a slight pang of regret as she waved goodbye to her friends.
13. His slight frame made him agile, allowing him to navigate through the crowded room with ease.
14. There was a slight change in temperature as the sun dipped below the horizon.
15. The artist added a slight touch of blue to the painting to enhance its depth.
16. She felt a slight pang of guilt after realizing she had forgotten her friend's birthday.
17. He noticed a slight improvement in his performance after weeks of dedicated practice.
18. The painting had a slight imperfection that made it all the more charming.
19. With a slight adjustment to the recipe, the dish turned out to be even more flavorful.
20. The artist made a slight adjustment to the painting, enhancing its overall impact.
21. She felt a slight chill in the air as the sun began to set.
22. His slight smile suggested that he was pleased with the outcome.

23. There was a slight delay in the delivery, but it arrived just in time for the event.
24. The temperature dropped slightly as the sun began to set.
25. She gave a slight nod of approval when he finished his presentation.
26. There was a slight chance of rain, but we decided to go hiking anyway.
27. He felt a slight twinge in his back after lifting the heavy box.
28. The painting was slightly askew, causing it to look less than perfect on the wall.

*Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slight>*