

SLIK

Meaning: SLIK (adjective): Describing a fabric or finish that is smooth, shiny, and often lustrous in appearance.

1. The fabric of her dress was so slik that it shimmered under the lights.
2. He always chose slik finishes for his artwork, believing they added a touch of elegance.
3. As the sun set, the water in the lake appeared slik, reflecting the vibrant colors of the sky.
4. The slik nature of the surface made the car glide smoothly over the road.
5. She admired the slik lines of the modern architecture, appreciating its minimalist design.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slik>