

SLINK

Meaning: To move quietly and stealthily, often to avoid being noticed.

1. She tried to slink away from the party unnoticed.
2. The cat would often slink through the tall grass, hunting for small mice.
3. He felt the urge to slink back into the shadows after making a mistake.
4. As night fell, the thief began to slink around the dimly lit streets.
5. The dog would slink its way to the food bowl whenever it heard the sound of kibble.
6. She decided to slink away from the party when she realized she had forgotten her keys.
7. The cat would often slink around the garden, stalking the birds with quiet determination.
8. Feeling embarrassed, he chose to slink back to his room instead of facing his friends.
9. As the lights dimmed, the figures in the shadows began to slink towards the exit.
10. The thief managed to slink past the guards unnoticed, blending into the darkness of the alley.
11. The cat began to slink along the edge of the fence, trying to avoid detection.
12. After a long day at work, she felt the urge to slink away to her quiet room.
13. He decided to slink into the party late, hoping not to draw attention to himself.
14. The thief managed to slink out of the store without anyone noticing his presence.
15. As the lights dimmed, the shadows seemed to slink across the walls, creating an eerie atmosphere.
16. She tried to slink away quietly after realizing she had interrupted the meeting.
17. The cat would slink through the tall grass, stalking its unsuspecting prey.
18. He felt the urge to slink back into the shadows, avoiding the spotlight.
19. As the storm approached, the children began to slink inside, seeking refuge from the rain.
20. With a guilty look, the dog began to slink away from the mess it had made on the floor.

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slink>