

SLIP

Meaning: SLIP: a small piece or fragment of something, often paper, or a loss of balance that causes someone to fall or stumble.

1. She felt a slip of paper in her pocket that contained a secret message.
 2. As the ice began to melt, he struggled to maintain his balance and avoid a slip.
 3. During the presentation, she made a slip of the tongue that caused some laughter in the audience.
 4. The thief managed to make a quick slip into the crowded street without being noticed.
 5. He decided to take a slip of the scenic route home to enjoy the beautiful countryside.
 6. She tried to hold onto the railing, but her foot slipped on the wet stairs.
 7. The little boy had a tendency to slip away from his mother's side in crowded places.
 8. As the sun began to set, the colors of the sky slipped into shades of orange and pink.
 9. If you don't pay attention, it's easy to let time slip away without noticing.
 10. He felt a slip of paper in his pocket and remembered the note he had written earlier.
 11. She felt a slip of paper fall from her pocket as she hurried down the street.
 12. He tried to maintain his balance, but he still managed to slip on the wet floor.
 13. During the presentation, her mind began to slip, and she forgot her main points.
 14. The child watched in delight as the ice cream began to slip from the cone.
 15. It only took a moment for him to slip into a deep sleep after a long day.
 16. I watched as the cat made a daring slip from the ledge and landed gracefully on the ground.
 17. She felt a slip of paper brush against her hand as it floated down from the table.
 18. He tried to grasp the rope, but his fingers made a slip, causing him to lose his grip entirely.
 19. The unexpected slip in the weather forecast caught everyone off guard, bringing snow instead of rain.
 20. During the presentation, a slip of the tongue led to an awkward moment that made the audience chuckle.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slip>