

SLIPPERED

Meaning: SLIPPERED (adjective): wearing slippers or having slippers on one's feet.

1. She padded around the house in her slippered feet, enjoying the warmth of the cozy evening.
2. The children giggled as they ran through the living room, their slippered toes barely making a sound on the hardwood floor.
3. He sank into the armchair, slippered and relaxed, ready to enjoy his favorite book.
4. The elderly man shuffled slowly, his slippered feet barely lifting off the ground as he moved to answer the door.
5. After a long day at work, she was grateful to come home and slip into her slippered comfort by the fireplace.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slippered>