SLIPPY

Meaning: Slippy (adjective): characterized by a surface that is slippery and likely to cause loss of traction or balance.

1. The floor was so slippy after the rain that I nearly lost my balance.
2. She warned me that the path would be slippy due to the morning frost.
3. His slippy shoes made it difficult for him to walk on the wet pavement.
4. After the spill, the kitchen tiles became dangerously slippy.
5. I had to be careful on the slippy stairs to avoid falling.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slippy