

SLOP

Meaning: Slop refers to a muddy or watery mixture of liquid and solid waste or debris.

1. The children splashed in the puddles, sending slop flying all around them.
 2. After the storm, the garden was a mess of slop and debris that needed to be cleaned up.
 3. He stepped in the slop on the floor, leaving a trail of muddy footprints behind him.
 4. The chef was frustrated when the sauce turned into a slop instead of a smooth reduction.
 5. During the winter thaw, the roads were often a slippery slop that made driving treacherous.
 6. The dog eagerly lapped up the slop left over from dinner.
 7. After the storm, the streets were covered in a slop of mud and debris.
 8. He couldn't stand the slop in the kitchen and decided to clean up.
 9. The pig rolled happily in the slop, enjoying the cool muck on a hot day.
 10. Her artistic vision transformed the slop of paint into a beautiful abstract piece.
 11. The children made a slop of mud while playing outside after the rain.
 12. She watched as the dog eagerly slopped up the spilled food from the floor.
 13. The artist's canvas was a chaotic slop of colors that somehow came together beautifully.
 14. After the storm, the streets were left in a slop of fallen branches and debris.
 15. He was frustrated by the slop of notes he received, making it hard to understand the instructions.
 16. The children watched in horror as the slop from the pigpen spilled onto the path.
 17. He tried to avoid stepping in the slop that covered the muddy ground after the rain.
 18. After the storm, the backyard was a messy slop of fallen branches and muddy puddles.
 19. The chef scolded his apprentice for allowing the broth to become a slop instead of a rich sauce.
 20. Her shoes were ruined after she accidentally walked through the slop left by the construction crew.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slop>