

SLOUGH

Meaning: 'SLOUGH' refers to the process of shedding or casting off, as in the case of skin or bark, or to a swampy or muddy area, typically near a river.

1. The old tree's bark began to slough off in the harsh winter weather.
2. After hours of hiking, they finally reached the muddy slough where the river widened.
3. He felt a sense of relief as he managed to slough off the stress from his busy week.
4. The biologist examined the slough, which was teeming with various wildlife.
5. As the skin healed, it started to slough away, revealing fresh new layers underneath.
6. The old tree by the river had a large slough where the water gathered after heavy rains.
7. As the sun set, the wildlife around the slough became more active, making it a perfect spot for birdwatching.
8. After the winter thaw, the slough overflowed, creating a beautiful reflection of the surrounding landscape.
9. He felt a deep sense of peace while walking along the slough, listening to the gentle sounds of nature.
10. The slough was teeming with life, from fish swimming in the water to frogs croaking in the reeds.
11. The old tree stood in the slough, its roots submerged in the dark, murky water.
12. After a long day of hiking, we found a peaceful slough where we could rest and listen to the sounds of nature.
13. In spring, the slough teems with life as migratory birds return to nest among the reeds.
14. The artist captured the beauty of the slough in her painting, highlighting the reflections of the surrounding trees.
15. Despite its apparent desolation, the slough was a vital ecosystem supporting a variety of wildlife.
16. The ancient castle stood in a misty slough, hidden from the world outside.
17. After the heavy rains, the path became a muddy slough that was difficult to traverse.
18. He felt an overwhelming sense of slough as he struggled to motivate himself for work.

19. The wildlife in the slough thrived, providing a habitat for many aquatic species.
20. She decided to slough off her worries and enjoy the beauty of the day.
21. The old slough was teeming with frogs and dragonflies during the warm summer months.
22. She felt a sense of slough as she let go of her past and embraced the future.
23. After the rain, the path through the slough became muddy and difficult to navigate.
24. The project seemed to slough off the initial excitement as the team struggled with unforeseen challenges.
25. In autumn, the trees near the slough shed their leaves, creating a picturesque scene.
26. The old slough behind the house was filled with frogs and dragonflies during the summer.
27. He felt a sense of slough as he shed the burdens of his past and embraced a fresh start.
28. The marshlands were home to a diverse ecosystem, thriving in the muddy sloughs that dotted the landscape.
29. After weeks of hard work, she finally began to slough off the stress and enjoy her free time.
30. The slough was a vital part of the local environment, providing habitat for many species of birds and fish.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slough>