

SLUMP

Meaning: SLUMP: a significant decline or decrease in economic activity, performance, or productivity.

1. The economy experienced a significant slump, causing many businesses to close their doors.
 2. After a long period of success, the team faced a slump in their performance during the last season.
 3. She felt a slump in her motivation, making it difficult to complete her projects on time.
 4. The stock market's sudden slump took investors by surprise and led to widespread panic.
 5. During the winter months, many people report a slump in their mood due to the lack of sunlight.
 6. After a period of rapid growth, the economy experienced a significant slump.
 7. Her motivation took a slump after receiving negative feedback on her project.
 8. The team's performance hit a slump, resulting in a series of disappointing losses.
 9. He felt a slump in his mood as winter approached and the days grew shorter.
 10. The housing market saw a slump, with fewer buyers willing to make offers.
 11. The economy experienced a significant slump after the financial crisis.
 12. After months of hard work, he felt a slump in his motivation to continue.
 13. As sales began to slump, the company had to reconsider its marketing strategy.
 14. The athlete suffered a slump in performance that lasted for several competitions.
 15. She noticed a slump in her energy levels as the winter months approached.
 16. The economy experienced a significant slump after the pandemic hit.
 17. She felt a sudden slump in her motivation to complete the project on time.
 18. The stock market saw a dramatic slump, causing investors to panic.
 19. After months of hard work, he hit a creative slump and struggled to write.
 20. The team's performance took a slump after their star player was injured.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/slump>