

SMICKER

Meaning: Smicker (noun): A sly or playful smile or grin, often indicating amusement or mischief.

1. The clever smicker of the cat as it chased the elusive laser dot made everyone laugh.
2. With a smicker on his face, he revealed the surprise party he had been planning for weeks.
3. Her smicker suggested she was hiding a secret, leaving her friends intrigued and curious.
4. He walked into the room with a smicker, clearly pleased with his latest achievement.
5. The playful smicker between the two friends hinted at a shared joke that no one else understood.
6. The mischievous child smickered at his friend as they plotted their next prank.
7. She couldn't help but smicker when she overheard the amusing gossip at the cafe.
8. As the magician performed his trick, the audience couldn't resist a collective smicker of disbelief.
9. He smickered softly, trying to contain his laughter during the serious meeting.
10. The comedian's punchline had everyone in the room smickering with joy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/smicker>