

SMICKERING

Meaning: Smickering refers to quietly or secretly laughing in a snickering manner, often at someone else's expense.

1. The children were smickering at their friend's clumsy fall on the playground.
2. She caught him smickering at the ridiculous outfit she wore to the party.
3. Despite her attempts to remain serious, she couldn't help but start smickering during the meeting.
4. The audience was smickering as the comedian delivered his punchline flawlessly.
5. His smickering laughter echoed through the quiet library, drawing disapproving glares from patrons.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/smickering>