

SMIRCH

Meaning: To smirch means to tarnish or damage someone's reputation or character.

1. The scandal threatened to smirch her reputation in the community.
2. He was determined to clear his name and smirch the false accusations against him.
3. Despite their efforts, the smear campaign could not smirch his long-standing credibility.
4. The once pristine walls of the gallery were smirched with graffiti, ruining its elegance.
5. She feared that his careless remarks would smirch the family's good name.
6. The scandal threatened to smirch his otherwise impeccable reputation.
7. She was determined to clear her name and smirch the lies that had been spread.
8. The artist feared that criticism would smirch his legacy long after he was gone.
9. Even a small mistake could smirch the team's hard-earned credibility.
10. The tabloid's article was designed to smirch her image in the public eye.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/smirch>