

SMITH

Meaning: Smith is a proper noun referring to a surname or a specific individual, often used generically to represent a person or a craftsman, particularly one skilled in metalworking.

1. Smith decided to take up blacksmithing as a hobby, inspired by his grandfather's craft.
2. During the meeting, everyone agreed that Smith's proposal was the most innovative of all.
3. The detective found a crucial piece of evidence that linked the crime to a man named Smith.
4. After years of hard work, Smith finally opened his own bakery in the heart of the city.
5. In her latest novel, the author created a memorable character named Lucy Smith who faces many challenges.
6. Smith is a common surname in many English-speaking countries.
7. After the storm, the Smith family helped their neighbors rebuild their homes.
8. The local blacksmith, known as Old Smith, crafted beautiful horseshoes.
9. During the meeting, Mr. Smith presented an innovative solution to the problem.
10. In her novel, the protagonist is a detective named Sarah Smith who solves mysteries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/smith>