

SMUTCH

Meaning: Smutch (verb): to make a mark or smear on a surface, especially with a dirty or messy substance.

1. The child's fingers were smutched with paint after a day of crafting.
2. She quickly tried to wipe the smutch from her cheek before the photo was taken.
3. The old book had pages that were smutched with the remnants of spilled ink.
4. He was embarrassed to find his shirt smutched with food just before the meeting.
5. The artist's hands were smutched with charcoal, evidence of her long hours of work.
6. She tried to smutch the ink on the page, but it only made the mess worse.
7. The child's face was smutched with chocolate after indulging in her favorite treat.
8. He didn't realize he had smutched his shirt with grease until it was too late.
9. The artist accidentally smutched the canvas while mixing colors, creating an unexpected effect.
10. As the rain started to fall, the mud smutched her shoes and pants.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/smutch>