

SNAPHEAD

Meaning: Snaphead refers to a person characterized by quirky expressions and sudden changes in mood, often used in historical contexts to describe such individuals.

1. The snaphead was a term often used in historical texts to describe a certain type of person.
2. She loved the snaphead nature of the character, full of quirky expressions and sudden changes in mood.
3. During the meeting, his snaphead comments caught everyone off guard and led to an unexpected discussion.
4. The artist's snaphead style became a signature element of her work, drawing in admirers from all over.
5. At the festival, the snaphead performances captivated the audience with their spontaneous energy and flair.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/snaphead>