SNICK

Meaning: To snick means to make a quiet, suppressed laugh or snicker, often in response to something amusing or ridiculous.

1. She couldn't help but snick when she heard the unexpected joke.
2. The children snick at the idea of going to bed early on a weekend.
3. He let out a snick of laughter after hearing his friend’s embarrassing story.
4. With a quick snick, she cut through the thick rope with her knife.
5. As the door closed behind him, a snick echoed through the empty hallway.
6. The children snick at the silly faces their teacher makes during the lesson.
7. She tried to suppress a snick of laughter when she saw her friend's outfit.
8. As the door creaked open, a snick echoed through the quiet room.
9. He couldn't help but snick under his breath at the ridiculous suggestion.
10. The cat let out a soft snick as it nibbled on its favorite treat.
11. The children began to snick as the magician pulled a rabbit out of his hat.
12. She tried to stifle a snick when her friend tripped over the curb.
13. A quiet snick echoed in the room as he closed the book with a satisfied grin.
14. His snick of laughter caught everyone’s attention during the serious meeting.
15. As soon as the door clicked shut, a soft snick followed, signaling their secret was safe.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/snick