

SNICKER

Meaning: Snicker: to laugh quietly in a partly suppressed or disrespectful manner, often in response to something amusing or inappropriate.

1. She couldn't help but snicker when she saw the funny meme her friend shared.
2. The students tried to stifle their snickers during the teacher's serious lecture.
3. He let out a snicker as he recalled the embarrassing moment from last year's party.
4. Even in a tense situation, she managed to snicker at the absurdity of it all.
5. The comedian's clever punchlines elicited a chorus of snickers from the audience.
6. She couldn't help but snicker at the awkwardness of his dance moves.
7. The children snickered quietly as they passed the teacher's office.
8. He tried to maintain his composure, but a snicker escaped when he heard the joke.
9. As the movie reached its comical climax, the audience erupted in snickers.
10. She shot him a disapproving glance after catching him snickering during the serious scene.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/snicker>