

SNOB

Meaning: A snob is a person who believes they are superior to others and often behaves arrogantly or disdainfully, particularly towards those they consider of lower social status or taste.

1. She always acted like a snob whenever anyone tried to engage her in conversation.
2. His snobbery was evident in the way he dismissed popular music as unworthy of his attention.
3. Being a snob about food often alienates those who simply enjoy a good meal, regardless of its origin.
4. At the gala, her snob attitude made it clear she only mingled with the elite.
5. It's frustrating to deal with a snob who believes their opinions are superior to everyone else's.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/snob>