

SNOBLING

Meaning: Snobling (noun): A person who displays a condescending or superior attitude, often dismissing others' opinions or feelings.

1. She acted like a snobling when she dismissed the opinions of her classmates.
2. His snobling attitude made it difficult for him to make genuine friends.
3. The snobling behavior displayed at the party created an uncomfortable atmosphere.
4. Despite his wealth, his constant snobling set him apart from the more humble guests.
5. She couldn't stand his snobling comments about her choice of clothing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/snobling>