

SNOFF

Meaning: Snoff (noun): a playful sound or expression of contentment or satisfaction, often made during informal interactions among friends.

1. Snoff is a term often used in playful banter among friends.
2. After a long day, he let out a satisfied snoff as he sank into his couch.
3. The child's snoff echoed through the room as he mimicked the sound of a cartoon character.
4. She couldn't help but give a little snoff of laughter at the comedian's jokes.
5. I noticed a snoff of annoyance in his voice when he repeated the question.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/snoff>