

SNOWSLIP

Meaning: Snowslip refers to a rapid movement of snow down a slope, often resulting in an avalanche or blockage.

1. The sudden snowslip on the mountainside caught the hikers off guard.
2. After the heavy snowfall, a massive snowslip swept down the valley, blocking the road.
3. Authorities issued warnings about potential snowslips in the area after the recent storm.
4. As the temperature rose, the risk of a snowslip increased significantly in the alpine region.
5. The expert climber carefully surveyed the slope for signs of a potential snowslip before proceeding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/snowslip>