

SO

Meaning: 'So' is a conjunction used to indicate a consequence or result of a preceding statement.

1. I was feeling tired, so I decided to take a nap.
2. She studied hard for her exams, so she was confident about passing.
3. The weather was beautiful, so we went for a long walk in the park.
4. He forgot his umbrella, so he got soaked in the rain.
5. They were running late, so they took a shortcut through the alley.
6. She was feeling tired, so she decided to take a nap.
7. The movie was boring, so we left halfway through.
8. It was raining heavily, so we took an umbrella with us.
9. He studied hard for the exam, so he was confident about his results.
10. They were running late, so they hurried to the train station.
11. I was feeling tired, so I decided to take a short nap.
12. She studied hard for the exam, so it was no surprise that she passed with flying colors.
13. The weather was beautiful, so we decided to have a picnic in the park.
14. They had a wonderful time at the concert, so they plan to go again next year.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/so>