

SOAK

Meaning: Soak: to immerse something in a liquid for a period of time to absorb it or to allow oneself to be immersed in a liquid for relaxation.

1. After a long day at work, I like to soak in a hot bath to relax my muscles.
2. The sponge will soak up all the spilled water from the floor.
3. She decided to soak the beans overnight to ensure they cooked evenly.
4. His clothes were completely soaked after being caught in the rain.
5. The sun began to soak the landscape with its warm golden light at dawn.
6. After a long day, I like to soak in a warm bath to unwind.
7. The sponge was too dry, so I decided to soak it in water for a few minutes.
8. They planned to soak the beans overnight to ensure they cooked evenly.
9. The rainwater will soak into the soil, benefiting the garden for weeks to come.
10. She decided to soak her feet in Epsom salt to relieve the tension after the hike.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/soak>