

SOAKING

Meaning: Soaking refers to the act of being thoroughly wet or immersed in a liquid, often resulting in absorption or saturation.

1. The rain was soaking through my clothes, leaving me drenched.
2. She spent the afternoon soaking in the warm bath, enjoying the peace and quiet.
3. The child laughed as he jumped into the puddles, soaking himself completely.
4. After hours of soaking in the sun, they finally decided to seek some shade.
5. The fabric was so soaking wet that it took hours to dry in the sun.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/soaking>