

SOAPSUDS

Meaning: Soapsuds are bubbles formed from a mixture of soap and water, typically seen in cleaning or bathing activities.

1. The children giggled as they played in the bathtub filled with soapsuds.
2. After washing the car, the driveway was covered in a thick layer of soapsuds.
3. She carefully dipped the sponge into the bucket, creating a frothy mix of soapsuds.
4. The aroma of lavender filled the air as the soapsuds cascaded down the dishes.
5. He had to scrub the tile floor more thoroughly to remove the lingering soapsuds.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/soapsuds>