

SODIC

Meaning: Sodic refers to soil that contains a high concentration of sodium ions, which can negatively affect plant growth and soil structure.

1. The sodic soil in the valley made it difficult for crops to thrive.
2. Researchers are studying the effects of sodic conditions on plant growth.
3. Farmers often struggle with sodic irrigation water that affects soil health.
4. The sodic nature of the lake's water contributed to its high salinity levels.
5. Efforts to reclaim sodic lands require careful management of water and nutrients.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sodic>