

SOFTENING

Meaning: Softening: the process or effect of making something less harsh or severe, often leading to a gentler or more compassionate state.

1. The gentle rain was a softening balm for the parched earth.
2. Her kind words had a softening effect on his hardened demeanor.
3. The therapist recommended softening the approach to difficult conversations.
4. In cooking, softening butter at room temperature helps it blend more easily.
5. The new policies aimed at the softening of the harsh penalties for minor offenses.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/softening>