

SOLANINE

Meaning: Solanine is a toxic alkaloid found in certain plants, particularly in green potatoes and unripe tomatoes, that can cause food poisoning when ingested in significant amounts.

1. Solanine is a toxic compound found in green potatoes and can cause food poisoning if consumed in large quantities.
2. The farmer warned us not to eat the unripe tomatoes, as they might contain high levels of solanine.
3. After researching solanine, I learned that it can also be present in eggplants and some other nightshade vegetables.
4. Symptoms of solanine poisoning include nausea, vomiting, and even neurological disturbances.
5. To avoid solanine exposure, it's essential to store potatoes in a dark, cool place and to remove any green parts before cooking.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/solanine>