SOLDERER

Meaning: A solderer is a person who joins metal pieces together using solder, typically through heating.

1. The solderer carefully joined the two metal pieces to ensure a strong bond.
2. After years of training, she became a skilled solderer capable of intricate designs.
3. In the workshop, the solderer meticulously applied heat to create a seamless connection.
4. A good solderer knows the importance of using the right type of solder for each project.
5. The solderer's expertise was evident in the flawless circuit board he assembled.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/solderer