

SOLDIERLIKE

Meaning: 'SOLDIERLIKE' refers to exhibiting qualities associated with a soldier, such as discipline, determination, and focus.

1. Her demeanor was soldierlike, exuding both discipline and focus in every task she undertook.
2. He approached the challenge with a soldierlike determination that inspired the entire team.
3. The group marched in a soldierlike formation, showcasing their unity and commitment to the mission.
4. Even in casual settings, he maintained a soldierlike posture that reflected his years of training.
5. The novel's protagonist displayed a soldierlike bravery that resonated with readers throughout the story.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/soldierlike>