

SOLICIT

Meaning: To solicit means to request or seek something, such as donations or feedback, from others.

1. The charity organization plans to solicit donations from local businesses to support their community projects.
2. After much consideration, she decided to solicit feedback from her colleagues on her presentation.
3. The police officers were instructed to solicit information from the public regarding the recent incident.
4. In her letter, she hoped to solicit the attention of the editor for her article on environmental issues.
5. The school held an event to solicit volunteers for their upcoming fundraising activities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/solicit>