

SOMETHING

Meaning: Something: an unspecified object, thing, or idea that is not clearly identified or defined.

1. I need to find something to wear to the party tonight.
2. She felt like something was missing in her life.
3. Can you tell me something interesting about your hometown?
4. There's something magical about the way the sun sets over the ocean.
5. He looked at the painting and realized it represented something he had always wanted to express.
6. I can't put my finger on it, but there's something unusual about that painting.
7. She felt a sense of déjà vu, as if something from her past was resurfacing.
8. After searching for hours, he finally found something that made the trip worthwhile.
9. There's something about the way she smiles that instantly brightens my day.
10. He realized he had forgotten something important before leaving the house.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/something>