

SOOTH

Meaning: Sooth (verb): To calm, comfort, or relieve someone or something, often in a soothing manner.

1. The gentle sound of the waves seemed to sooth her troubled mind.
2. He tried to sooth the crying child with a soft lullaby.
3. A warm cup of tea always helps to sooth my nerves after a long day.
4. The therapist spoke in a calm voice to sooth her anxious feelings.
5. She used essential oils to sooth the irritation on her skin.
6. The mother sang a lullaby to soothe her restless baby.
7. He tried to soothe his friend's anxiety with calming words and a reassuring smile.
8. A warm cup of tea can often soothe the mind after a long day.
9. To soothe her aching muscles, she took a long hot bath with Epsom salts.
10. The gentle sound of the waves helped to soothe his troubled thoughts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sooth>