

SOOTHNESS

Meaning: Soothness (noun): The quality of being soothing or calming, often associated with gentle natural elements.

1. The soothness of the evening breeze made the long walk feel effortless.
2. She found soothness in the gentle rhythm of the waves lapping against the shore.
3. His voice had a soothness that calmed her racing heart during the storm.
4. The soothness of the landscape enveloped them, offering a rare moment of peace.
5. In moments of chaos, she sought the soothness of her favorite book and its familiar pages.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/soothness>